Daiya Creamy Caesar, $5

Now here is a caesar I can get on board with. Caesar dressing is my favorite and as a household aiming to go dairy-free, Daiya's Creamy Caesar dressing had an immediate appeal. Daiya's Creamy Caesar really dresses to impress having the same rich and creamy taste as regular caesar dressing but with the benefit that you can share it with anyone dairy-free or otherwise. I truthfully eat far more salad now than I ever did before with creamy caesar leaving my tummy happy and my tastebuds always wanting for more. I am officially addicted to this salad dressing. –Victoria Davis, editorial intern
